To whom it may concern,

This is a letter of full support to Dr. Galabina Tarashoeva. I've been working with her the last four years, in the International Board of International Association of Group Psychotherapy and Processes IAGP. I can say she is a great professional, trustful, committed, and intelligent and develops her leadership always on an efficient and caring way.

It's been a great honor to share her good work and ethical behavior. She always shows great capacities and high professional knowledge, I feel proud of sharing with her great decisions and good work.

For all this I want to leave evidence of their professional and good work in any task that was entrusted responsibility,

Sincerely yours

CMT
